

Lower Delaware Wild & Scenic River Management Council Meeting November 29, 2018

www.lowerdelawarewildandscenic.org

The meeting was called to order at 7:00 PM at the Delaware Township Municipal Building, Sergeantsville, New Jersey.

Steering Committee Vice Chairperson Martie Kyde called the meeting in order in the absence of Chairman Richard Dodds. There were 26 attendees.

National Park Service: Jamie Fosburgh, a Resource Planner with the National Park Service (NPS) introduced Sarah Bursky, a Community Planner and Rivers Manager at NPS, who will be supporting Wild & Scenic initiatives.

Herring Alliance: Zack Greenberg, of the Herring Alliance shared information on the Alliance, a new partner organization. His presentation was posted on the Lower Delaware Wild & Scenic website.

Mini-Grant Presentations: Five mini-grant recipients presented their Wild & Scenic funded projects. The Council heard informative presentations from:

- Ed Rogers of the Delaware Riverkeeper regarding the nomination of Tohickon Creek Historic District to National Register of Historic Places,
- Patty Ruby of the Delaware Township Environmental Commission regarding invasive species management at the Zega-Lockatong Preserve,
- David Oleska of the Durham Historical Society regarding the clean Durham Mill tail race,
- Dennis Bertland of the Knowlton Township Historic Commission regarding the Delaware River Trade & Settlement Patterns, exhibit for the Ramsaysburg Homestead, and
- Dr. Allison Brown of the Delaware River Steamboat Floating Classroom regarding water quality monitoring equipment.

2019 Mini-Grants: The next round of mini-grants were announced with a deadline of February 22nd. The 2019 application was posted on the Lower Delaware Wild & Scenic website.

New Member: The Council accepted the Lenape Nation as a member.

The meeting adjourned at 8:30 PM.